

After-school orchestra underway

With the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year, comes many different things, one of which is the start of the many clubs and afterschool activities. Chamber orchestra is one of the many after school activities available all year round and is a great opportunity to become involved in G. Ray Bodley High School's Music Department.

Run and conducted by GRB Orchestra teacher Mrs. Edele, chamber orchestra plays a big part in the school's orchestra program, and is available to all orchestral students attending GRB. "My hope for chamber this year is to show what underclassmen can achieve when they reach the level of our upperclassmen," stated Mrs. Edele.

Chamber orchestra meets every Monday and Thursday in the orchestra room until 3 pm and will perform during the orchestra concerts starting in December. The date of the first meeting is still undecided, but chamber orchestra will start in the very near future.

Bears overpower Lady Raiders in tennis

Thursday evening was another long night for the Lady Raider tennis team as they traveled up to Chittenango with hopes of ending their losing streak. The match started at 4:30 pm but was not over until 9 pm due to the lights going out. Some of the girls had to wait for the delay and then had to resume when the lights came back on.

The girls ended up falling, but not without a fight. They lost to the Bears 5-2, but every match played was a close one. Hope Williams won in first singles while Kassidy Kearns and Julia Ludington won in first doubles. Williams won 2-6, 6-1, and 6-4. Kearns and Ludington also won in three sets 5-7, 7-6, and 6-4. Other close games for the girls were second singles, second doubles, and fourth doubles. Maggie Williams lost 7-6 and 6-3, Casey Shannon and Anna Guernsey lost 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, and Miki Iijima and Carly Williams lost 6-4, 6-4.

With Thursday night's loss, the Lady Raiders fell to 1-7. On Friday night, the Lady Raiders faced Cortland. Hoping to redeem themselves after last time's 4-3 loss, they wanted to win. To find out the score against Cortland, check out Tuesday's RaiderNet Daily.

"Ask Myrtle" advice column coming to RND

Greetings Raider Net Daily readers, Hello, I'm Myrtle.

Everyone has problems, whether they involve relationships, school, bullying, home life and the like. I'm here to lend a sympathetic shoulder and give advice in RaiderNet Daily's newest feature; "Ask Myrtle."

I'm looking for your anonymous e-mails or letters and each week I will try to address as many as possible.

Send your letters to askmyrtle.raider@gmail.com and then check back on RaiderNet Daily to check out my responses. I can't wait to hear from you.
