

Bowlers march toward title, hoopsters thwarted

The boys took a huge step toward another title while an old nemesis dashed the girls title hopes on Thursday when the Red Raider bowlers fought to a split against East Syracuse-Minoa. Running their league mark to a perfect 6-0, the boys blanked the Spartans 3-0. The girls fell just short of victory in a 2-1 loss to the Spartans that leaves them two games back of ES-M in the OHSL standings.

Lucas Clark had the high game of 279 and the high series of 737 as the Raider boys rolled past the Spartans. Bradley Martin followed with a 704 series and Bayley Raponi totalled 670 in three games to offset Dan Marriott's 686 for ES-M.

Haley Youker led all scorers with a 645 series to help carry the Spartan girls to 5-0 in the league and 7-1 overall with their narrow win over Fulton. Megan Guernsey's 632 series paced the Raiders while Emily Gerth had the high game of 255 en route to a 564 series. Zoe June placed third for Fulton with a 548 series.

Hoopsters fall victim to comebacks

It was a tale of two halves for the Raider basketball teams on Thursday and unfortunately for Fulton a pair of second half disasters proved to be the difference in losses against Cortland. The boys fell 49-45 in overtime while the girls came up far short in a 49-29 loss to the Purple Tigers. In each case an early lead evaporated to leave the boys at 6-6 and the girls at 6-5 overall.

The Raider boys cruised to a 17-4 first quarter lead and held a 28-13 halftime advantage before Cortland staged a ferocious comeback. In all the Tigers held the Raiders to just 17 points through the final two quarters and overtime while firing in 36 points of their own to produce the victory. A 16-6 third quarter set the stage for the winners, who were paced by Nick Craig's 19 points and 16 off the hand of Chris Luke. Craig's total included seven points from the free throw line where Cortland held a 9-1 advantage on the night.

Cody Green led the Raiders with 19 points and seven rebounds while Josh Hudson had 13 and Justin Hood 11. Fulton will be back in action on Saturday at noon in the opening game of the Zebra Classic at Onondaga Community College's Allyn Hall Gym. The Raiders face Oswego as part of a five game schedule that will culminate with CBA taking on Bishop Ludden at 7 pm.

The storyline and end result were both similar for the Raider girls as they led 13-8 after the first quarter but could manage just 14 points the rest of the way in their loss to Cortland. Leading scorer Nicole Hansen fell victim to early foul trouble and logged just eight minutes on the night while being held off the scoresheet for the first time all season. Sydney Gilmore paced the Raiders with 11 points while Jackie Phillips and Shea Swarouth fired in 16 and 15 respectively for the Purple Tigers.

FAFSA applications are now available

As of January 1, the application for Free Application for Federal Student Aid, better known as FAFSA, is now available online. All college bound seniors are highly recommended to submit an application due to the fact that it is government-sponsored financial aid (free money). The amount of financial assistance one receives however is based on eligibility.

If procrastination happens to be one of your faults, this is definitely not time to practice it. Many colleges base grants and scholarships for students from a submitted FAFSA form. In many cases, these grants and scholarships given are first come first serve. It is important that your FAFSA application is submitted asap. Make sure to check your with your college for their FAFSA deadline.

Ride Along 2, Benghazi highlight new movies

This weekend, history is remembered and also made, with some new movies. Coming out in theaters we have Ride Along 2, 13 hours: The Secret Soldiers of Benghazi, and Norm of the North.

Ride Along 2 is an action comedy, featuring Kevin Hart and Ice Cube. As Ben's wedding day approaches, he and his soon to be brother in law James head to Miami to bring down a drug dealer who is supplying the dealers of Atlanta with product.

13 hours: The secret Soldiers of Benghazi is an action, drama and thriller movie based on the attack at the US Compound in Libya and a US ambassador is killed and the security team struggles to make sense out of the chaos.

The Norm of the North is an animation adventure comedy starring Rob Schneider, Heather Graham and Ken Jeong. Somehow winding up in New York City Norm, a polar bear, becomes the mascot of a company that is tied to the fate of his motherland.

Fatalities loom after extremist attack in Jakarta

A terror attack consisting of several explosions and gun battles left at least seven dead in Indonesia's capital, Jakarta on Thursday.

The self-proclaimed Islamic State claimed to have carried out the attacks. Indonesian police have recently stated that five suspected attackers are among the seven casualties.

Details remain unclear, but eyewitnesses report that one blast hit a Starbucks cafe and a police security post.

The gunmen reportedly retreated to the Djakarta theater, while heavily armed police and snipers were deployed throughout the capital.

As soon as police arrived, an exchange of gunfire began that lasted for several hours.

Police officials claim that three more attackers are in custody, however several more attackers may still be at large. Initial reports claim that there may have been up to 14 attackers.

This is an all-too familiar occurrence for Indonesia, who has suffered six other deadly Islamic extremist terror attacks since 2000.
