

Wrestlers roar back, icemen win again

Hell hath no fury like a Red Raider scorned. That was the message delivered loud and clear over the weekend as the Fulton wrestlers demolished a pair of teams from the Rochester area. One week removed from a tough 1-4 showing at the Union-Endicott Duals the Raiders roared back into the victory column by flattening Victor 59-8 on Friday and then followed it up with a 60-13 Saturday charge past Canandaigua. In the process Fulton improved to 11-5 on the season heading into Wednesday's double dual against East Syracuse-Minoa and Oswego at Oswego.

Pinning efforts got the ball rolling on both counts as Adam DeMauro opened the Victor match with a 2:45 slam while Aaron Yablonski took just 1:43 to start the barrage against Canandaigua. The Raiders built a 16-0 lead over Victor before the Rochester area side halved the count to 16-8 by taking the next two matches. But unlike several recent results where Fulton built an early edge only to watch the opposition rally, there was no such letdown this time around. Dylan Gorman and Aaron Yablonski scored back to back pins, and the rout was on as Fulton claimed the final nine bouts en route to victory. Jared Crucitti (285), Thomas Hughes (99) and Kaleb Carreon (106) scored consecutive pins during the Raider onslaught with Crucitti raising his record to 23-6 in the process.

The following day Canandaigua proved to be no match for Fulton as the home side blitzed to a 36-3 lead and never looked back. Yablonski's pin at 1:43 was followed by second period pins from Wyatt Willis and Nick Noel and three victories by forfeit as Willis improved to 19-6 on the season. Tim Holden, the most recent member of the 100 victory club, finished a strong weekend at 25-3 with an 11-0 major decision at 160 and Camrin Galvin scored a 15-0 technical fall while Jacob Bailey levied a pin in the 152 pound ring.

Icemen win fourth straight

The resurgent Red Raider hockey team remained on a roll on Friday evening by rallying past Fayetteville-Manlius 3-2. Fulton scored a pair of third period goals to claim a fourth straight victory, which leaves the team at 5-7 overall and 2-4 in league play. Rocco Cannata scored two goals and assisted on a third by Dylan Sheldon while Stan Kubis had a pair of assists for the winners, who overcame goal and assist efforts from F-M's Trevor Pokines and Tommy Ryu. Raider goaltender Spencer Evans was one save better than his Hornet counterpart Brandon Heyman as he turned back 23 shots to backstop the victory on a night when Fulton trailed 1-0 after the first period and 2-1 through 30 minutes.

Fulton will look to extend its winning ways on Wednesday when the Raiders play host to Rome Free Academy.

Rally falls short for hoopsters

In Saturday basketball action the Red Raider boys came up short down the stretch for the second time in three days in a 58-53 loss to Oswego at the Zebra Classic in Syracuse. Still feeling the ill effects of their overtime loss at Cortland on Thursday, the Raiders stumbled out of the gates while falling behind 15-6 in the opening quarter, but rebounded to score 20 points in the second period and 18 more in the third to forge a 41-41 standoff against the Bucs. But Oswego limited the Raiders to just nine points in the decisive fourth quarter while pouring in 14 to improve to 6-7 overall and 6-3 in league play at the expense of a 6-7 overall, 3-5 league mark for Fulton.

Carson Smith, Trey Clark and Mike Poston combined to score half a hundred as Smith hit for a game high 21 while Clark had 15 and Poston 14 for the Bucs. Four Raiders finished in double figures led by Cody Green's 14 point showing. Tyler Lee returned to the Fulton lineup with 13 points, Josh Hudson had 11 and Justin Hood contributed 10 to go with an eight assist effort by Jake McDermott. The Raiders will be back in action on Thursday when they travel to Camden.

Swimmers fall to Mexico

Senior night did not go as planned for the Raider swimmers on Friday as Mexico spoiled the party by cruising to a 107-79 victory. Ryan Morehouse swam to a first place finish in the 100 butterfly and also joined David Tallents, Tim McAfee and Justin Grower on the victorious 200 medley relay for Fulton's lone victories on the night. McAfee was second in both the 200 IM and 100 breaststroke while Grower placed second in the 50 freestyle to go along with a runner-up effort from Josh Hotaling in the 100 backstroke. Hourihan, Tallents and Grower joined forces with Caleb Almeter to take second in the 200 freestyle relay with Almeter also taking part in the runner-up 400 freestyle relay along with Hotaling, Dakota Stoutenger and Grant Marriner.

Thai company feels backlash from skin product

By Kassidy Bowering

A Thai company has made an advertisement promoting the idea of white supremacy, saying that "Just being white, you will win." White supremacy is the belief that white people are superior to those of all other races, especially the black race, and should therefore dominate society.

"Seoul Secret is the company which has produced the skin whitening pill, known as Snows. Within the ad there are two actresses, one who remains white and smiling saying 'Eternally white, I am confident,' while the other actress fades to a darker shade of black, frowning as she grows darker.

This idea that those who are white will always win, or be on top in social, political, and economic matters is ridiculous in this day and age. So for obvious reasons the ad has had some backlash.

This idea that being white is in essence "better" can be seen all across Asian societies. This isn't just an aesthetic preference, this is a way of thinking that is promoting social inequality and setting the globe years back.

At a time when we celebrate the work of Martin Luther King Jr. in terms of helping to eradicate this type of belief within our own society, it is sad to see things like this still happening. Throughout G. Ray Bodley High School those of all races are included and praised for their good work. If only this could be seen all around the globe.
