"a sound as brisk as wild ponies in a roundup and as tight as thread on a spool." Bluegrass Unlimited
"The songwriting talent in this band is mind boggling." ~Bluegrass Now Magazine

Guy Davis / Larry Kyle opens

March 11 $17-$20

"Truth be told, there just aren't many who can deliver Americana in as interesting and entertaining a manner—or give acoustic traditional blues such a contemporary sound— as Grammy nominated Davis." ~The Blues PowR Blog

Deeper Than The Skin Reggie Harris & Greg Greenway

March 25 $16-$19

Meet & Greet Reception 6:30

An experience that makes you laugh, smile, cry and reconsider what you know about our history. "a profoundly moving evening of deep sharing and stellar musicianship."

~Margie Rosenkranz, Eighth Step

Jonathan Byrd

April 15 $15-$18

A preacher's kid, Gulf War veteran, and award-winning songwriter with a near-cult following. "...one of the top 50 songwriters of the past 50 years." ~Chicago Tribune

Burns Sisters Band

April 29 $16-$19

Ithaca natives, The Burns Sisters have shared the stage with many great folk legends— Arlo Guthrie, Tom Paxton, Pete Seeger, Odetta, Willie Nelson and even the Boston Pops. They have played at Carnegie Hall, the Grand Old Opry, and at venues in Thailand and Ireland.
